

Trees! By Watson

There was a girl.

She liked trees. She wondered if the trees

can help us she wondered and wondered and wondered. She told her

mom. her mom said

"yes they can help us.

breath." then the girl

asked her dad. She said,

"dad can trees help us?"

get are fruit like apples.

and oranges." Then she went to her big brothers room she told them "do trees help us?"
her big her big brothers said they can help us they give us shade and in the spring there would be flowers on the trees"

then the little girl thought she didnt just like trees she loved trees

The end
